

STUDENT RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES CENTER

At a Glance...

The SRRC Is Tasked With:

- Developing and updating student code of conduct
- Training student conduct committee
- Liaising with campus Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) for students in crisis
- Mediating Conflicts
- Handling alleged violations of student conduct code and other policies
- Student Advocacy - helping students to understand their rights and policies on campus; enforcing due process
- Providing training and educational opportunities to students, staff and faculty around conflict resolution, difficult situations, and legal compliance

A primary objective of the disciplinary process is to promote the personal and social development of those students found responsible for misconduct. Charges are investigated and resolved in a forum of candor, civility, and fairness.

Disciplinary actions include, but are not limited to:

- Disciplinary Warning
- Written Reprimand
- Disciplinary Probation
- Disciplinary Suspension
- Dismissal
- "Not in Good Standing" Status
- Supplemental Educational Sanction
